

GOSCON Program Tracks:

	Management	Open Source in the Mission	Open Technology Forum	Hands On Technology Labs
7:30 AM	Registration Begins
8:40 AM	Breakfast Keynote: David M. Wennergren, Dep Asst Sec of Defense for Information Management and Technology / Deputy CIO US Department of Defense
9:10 AM	Open Source Basics for Management: Open Source 101 for Managers Organizational Readiness: Skillset, Migration, Stakeholders Evaluating the Total Cost of Open Source	Mission Ignite: An Ignite session of Examples of Open Source Supporting Agency Missions	Open Source in the Cloud	Hands-on with JBoss SOA Platform
10:25 AM	BREAK
10:50 AM	Management and Evaluation of Open Source Projects: Who do I call? Understanding the IT Ecosystem Sustainability of Open Source	Open Source in Mission Critical Operations (Panel)	Security Experts on Open Source

12:00 PM	Lunch Keynote: Dr. David Boyd, Director, Command, Control and Interoperability, S&T Directorate, DHS
1:30 PM	Procurement and Acquisition of Open Source Software: Open Source as an Agency Strategy Procuring an Open Source Project	Open Source's Critical Role when Data must be Shared	Migrating your Agency to Open Systems to Improve Efficiency and Reduce Risks	Hands-on with Red Hat Enterprise Virtualization
2:45 PM	BREAK
2:55 PM	Legal Issues around Open Source - Using, Sharing and Releasing: Legal Issues with Open Source Software Releasing Open Source Software to Other Agencies and the Public	Open Source in Public Safety and Healthcare	Open Source Middleware (panel)
3:40 PM	Does Government Need a Shared Development Platform? (Panel)	Open Source Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing
04:00:00 PM	WRAP UP			